DIFFERENTIATOR

Our personnel have worked with the Department of State, the Department of Justice, and the Department of Defense to plan, organize, and conduct mission-sensitive activities on counter-narcotics in the Middle East, Africa, and Europe. The missions have included advisement or counter-narcotic enforcement, anti-terrorism measures, police training, and investigation topics. Our team has worked with numerous public and private institutions throughout the United States to conduct vulnerability assessments and create customized safety plans. We have developed curriculums and provided training in national and global environments on radicalization and terrorism awareness for local communities, law enforcement, security professionals, and corporations/organizations. In addition, we have facilitated training and practice exercises regarding natural and manmade disasters for first responders throughout the United States for FEMA. Global Initiatives has a long history of serving government agencies and domestic organizations. Our staff includes personnel who have years of experience as investigators, trainers, and security consultants to meet the unique challenges of national and global operations. We design and adapt our systems and processes to serve our clients effectively and efficiently. Conducting business in a compliant and ethical manner is the foundation upon which Global Initiatives was built and adherence to these values is vital to our continued success. We are committed to excellence in everything we do. At Global Initiatives, our experienced operatives have been vetted to match personnel and their specific talents to the unique needs of our clients.
